

MILES CRISP

"I am fascinated by leaders and leadership. I want to be a good leader myself and I want to help others to be the best leaders they can be."

Experience & Skills

Miles has led teams and organisations for over forty years, ranging from start-up companies to large corporates. He has experience ranging from consulting, professional services, hardcore sales, technology and NGOs. Miles has held leadership positions locally and abroad and has experienced the challenges of leading globally diverse teams. He has worked with large and small budgets, innovation, big systems, informal entities and established businesses. Miles is an effective communicator and facilitator and is well qualified to share what he has learned.

Qualifications

- B.Com. CTA. CA(SA)