

LEADER AS HEALER

A 3 day retreat in Johannesburg, South Africa

Sunday July 21th 16.00 – Wednesday July 24th 12.00 (SAST) 2024

Led by Nicholas Janni

assisted by Hadassa Degani

organized by Shine and Matrix Development

Programme overview

We are living in critically challenging times, organisationally and societally.

This is a unique opportunity to work intensively with two master consultants in a small group of no more than 20 senior leaders. First time in South Africa in a quiet venue in Johannesburg area.

In this retreat you will be supported to break through to new levels of yourself, your leadership and your impact as a change, transformation catalyst.

You will discover the power of bringing all parts of yourself to the table in cohesion – body, mind, heart and soul, thus activating the 'whole-self intelligence' that is needed to navigate and contribute in the most positive way to your life, to your organisation, and to the world in these increasingly unstable and dangerous times.

You will learn to be the enabler of individual and team transformation in an entirely new way.

Nicholas Janni

Nicholas has been guiding CEO's, senior leaders and their teams for 25 years. He teaches at two of the world's leading business schools, pioneering a new vision and practice of leadership.

He bridges the worlds of creative, personal, spiritual and professional development in a uniquely powerful, relevant and accessible way.

"In my decades developing executives at top business schools, Nicholas Janni's work has consistently been the most transformational I have witnessed. He is the linchpin of every program I direct. Given the existential challenges we face, there is no book that is more important and timely."

Michael Watkins, author of The First 90 Days says of Nicholas's work:

The work is based on Nicholas Janni's groundbreaking methodology and principles covered in his book

Leader as Healer – a new paradigm for 21st century leadership

Who is the programme for?

Anyone in a senior leadership position in any sector who:

- Recognises the call to upgrade the consciousness and practice of leadership
- Feels the need to discover new, more effortless sources of energy, inspiration and clarity
- Wants to become a more powerful catalyzer of change and/or transformation
- Is looking for the theory, processes and practices that enable this
- Understands that their own process of development must include some healing of the personal, ancestral and collective trauma patterns within them
- Wants to deepen their meditation and mindfulness practices
- Wishes to be part of a growing global community devoted to developing optimum leadership

Assisted by

Hadassa Degani is the founder of Tree of Healing, deeply committed to the art of healing and transformation. She specializes in leveraging Chinese medicine, organizational coaching, and mentoring to facilitate positive changes in the lives of both children and adults.

She provides personal, professional and spiritual guidance, working somatically, emotionally and psychologically in all stages and phases of a person's development.

“At this most pivotal time in human history the challenge leaders face is way beyond VUCA. The challenge for leaders today is to righten civilization, to literally re-invent society from the ground up; From first principle—Unity; From zero point. The current order is imploding. It no longer works. We know that going back to normal is a catastrophe. Leadership is now compelled to take responsibility for the welfare of the whole planet.”

Bob Anderson, co-founder The Leadership Circle
