

ABAS ALHASSAN

"I want to give back to society by helping professionals achieve their personal and professional goals."

Experience & Skills

Abas is an accredited coach (ACC) with the International Coach Federation (ICF), a chartered accountant with a master's degree in finance and a PGD in coaching with over 35 years of experience in the finance and mining industries. Abas went into coaching to give back to society by helping individuals and professionals achieve their personal and professional goals and managing organisational change.

The pace of change in the world resulting from the fourth industrial revolution of information technology and COVID-19, has brought daily challenges which individuals and organisations face. These challenges include changes in the workplace which have resulted in an increasing pressure on people to manage their personal lives and deliver on organisational strategy. Abas' approach is to assist individual and teams built the mental fitness required using integral approach to personal & leadership development and organisational change management. This is based on the idea that in order to achieve success, all parts and the interrelationship must be examined.
